“World Soil Day- 2022”
Theme: Soils Where Food Begins

Seminar on "World Soil Day- 2022 (5th December)" WSD- 2022 was organized by Department of Forestry and Department of Agriculture, Dolphin PG Institute of Biomedical and Natural Sciences Dehradun, on 5th December 2022. Effective communication about soil's importance is essential for soil security. Both formal and informal education can be used to connect people with soil. And the conducted seminar was one such effort by Dolphin Institute to spread awareness on soil's importance among today's youth and tomorrow's future. The seminar began with welcoming all the guests and participants and was followed by the presentations of invited speakers. Prof. (Dr.) MN Jha, ex Soil Scientist ICFRE/ FRIDU/ ICAR was the Chief Guest of the Seminar and also the Lead Presenter and Dr Manoj Kumar, Field & Lab Soil Technical Officer, Forest Ecology & Climate Change, FRI, Dehradun was key speaker. Prof. Jha, in his eloquent talk emphasised on the need of basic knowledge of soil being the key component of life on earth. He also mentioned that all the microorganism living in the soil are equally important to the flora growing on the soil. Mr Manoj Kumar taught the techniques of soil sampling and preparation and mentioned that it is very crucial to collect samples in right way and processing them properly to get correct information. The technical sessions were followed by field demonstration. Seminar was concluded with the vote of thanks by Dr A K Uniyal. Total 192 students from the Departments of Forestry, Agriculture & Horticulture in the seminar. All the faculty members of Forestry, Agriculture & Horticulture attended the same. Blessings and inspiration from respected Shri Arvind Gupta Chairman, Dr. Shailja Pant Principal DIBNS led the event to great success.
