Hands on Training on Cell Counters

Attention medical Laboratory technology students , Department of pathology DIBNS is conducting a 2 day workshop on cell counters There will be hands on training, real cell counter used in hematology labs will be used for training. Please register yourself for the course.

Venue: Auditorium
Date: 18th and 19th May 2019

This workshop will make you proficient in using a fully automatic hematology analyzer and also help in understanding the principles and practice of cell counters and their use in hematology lab:
